INTRODUCTION OF GUEST Bud Lathrop

- Introduction of Sheriffs Officers

Sheriff Mascher
Capt. Dave Rhodes
Lt Jeff Newnum
Also introduction George Dvorak and Mark Bormann

A toast was offered in honor of the passing of Billy Holbrook and Lt. Wayne Loughrige and his son Joseph.

Sheriff Mascher Spoke briefly about a lost child incedent which was supported by military aircraft which required clearance of all other aircraft in the area. This precluded YCSAG participation in the search. Sheriff Mascher also asked the Air Group to come up with a group photo with our aircraft to hang in the sheriff's office.
Capt Rhodes mentioned his previous activity in search and rescue. Futures missions could include search for illegal dump sites.
Lt Newnum spoke of the Bloody Basin area as a key area for lost persons. This would be a very important area to survey for abandoned vehicles which could indicate a lost person. The Red River airstrip is a key location.
