ADJUTANT'S REPORT Dana Hoch

- Dana talked to Terry Cook from the Quad Group and discussed radios. They have ordered 30 radios from Inter-Mountain Communications in Prescott Valley. I called and talked to Brent Johnson and then met with him to discuss the radios that Quad was getting. He said he would order an identical radio, set it up the same as the other groups, and let us use it for a while to make sure it worked for us. He sent me a proposal for a radio and lapel mike $343.92. I will pick it up Friday 4/28 so that we can use it during our Mock Search on 4/29.
- Brent Kimbriel gave me areas that they would like photographed – Stoneman Lake, Wet Beaver Creek, Sycamore/Waldrip Canyon (12.8 miles), Sheep's Bridge, Fossil Creek, Apache Maid, Backside of Crown King 7-11 Rd/FS192.

COMMANDER'S REPORT Dan Berry

- Nominations for Elections – Dan will ask a few members to head up nomination committee. He stated that Dana and himself were good for another year, but Noel would like to step down.
- Large-scale SAR Field Exercise on April 29th. Dan will be Air Branch Director at the ICP and Noel will fly with Dana as observer. Dan asked if anybody else would like to participate.
- SAR Conference in Heber May 5-7, Dan is not going.

OPERATIONS/SAFETY OFFICER'S REPORT Noel Urban

- Noel said that Charles Kimball had completed his check ride as an observer.
- Noel flew Mission 4/21/17 DR#17-013775 Mirror flashes and smoke with Dana as observer. No joy.
