ADJUTANT'S REPORT Dana Hoch

- The Barnstar Brewery Debacle – We had been anticipating this for weeks and salivating for days previous to the event scheduled for Saturday, June 16 at high noon. The forecast called for rain, everybody wanted to believe, but none did, as nary a drop had come for months. Not only did it rain like it meant it, it knocked out the power to the Brewery. Those that did show praised the rain gods and were turned away at the gate because no power means no food prep. This adventure is not over yet, we will be rescheduling again as soon as Dan shows me the steps to the 'Rain Dance' he used.

COMMANDER'S REPORT Dan Berry

- Sheriff Mascher is asking for volunteers to walk with him in the annual Independence Day Parade on Saturday @ 0830. They will be meeting on Cortez near Domino's.
- Fire/Smoke Patrol (DR#18-014479) – Sheriff will reimburse for these if receipts are submitted.
- Dan discussed the meeting at Prescott National Forest Fire Center at the Airport. The meeting defined people's roles and brought up that the Forest Service would not reimburse for smoke patrols. We re-iterated that we would continue our patrols anyway.
