ADJUTANT'S REPORT Dana Hoch

- Advertisement in paper pays off. Four people interested, Greg Flowers, Tim Jordan, Dan Adler, and Robert Sell. All were given application packets.
- Get together at Barnstar Brewery. We tried once again (10/13) and Mother Nature showed us what IMC is. What do we want to try next and when ????. It was suggested to try the Brew Pub in Prescott.
- Dana is looking for a volunteer to help with coordination of Activities and a Recruiter.
- Dana mentioned that a hat is part of our uniform.
- Dana has been in contact withal Cornell from Verde SAR and he volunteered to give us a class on pilot survival. He will arrange a meeting after the beginning of the year.

COMMANDER'S REPORT Dan Berry

- Changing of the guard – Abner is stepping down as acting Operations/Safety officer and Michael Rodriguez will be taking on that role with support from Abner.
- We need to do a follow-up with the MCSO Air Group to coordinate search efforts in joint areas. Deputy Barton will get us the contact information.
- KYCA interview with Samantha Parsons (Part 2?) – Dan says she has not set a date yet.

OPERATIONS/SAFETY OFFICER'S REPORT Abner Cassidy / Michael Rodriguez

- Training mission with other groups. This would be a good time to check out new recruits as observers.

YCSO REPORT Dennyse Loll / Deputy Barton

- Upcoming Training opportunity dates.
  - Use of Force Class – Tuesday, December 11, 1800-2000, Yavapai County Administration Building, 1015 Fair Street
  - Driving Class is coming up – Dee Dee will let us know when.
- ASARCA Conference first weekend in May in Heber – details to follow
- Full Medical Release required after any serious illness or injury – Ask Dee Dee if this applies to you.
- Photo recon missions. They are still working on some targets.

NEW BUSINESS Dan Berry

- None

MEMBER COMMENTS. Members
