d) Members of the Board of Directors who are elected to a two-year term of office may succeed themselves if duly elected.

V. PARLIMENTARY AUTHORITY

a) The Yavapai County Sheriff's Air Group shall use Robert's Rules of Orders parliamentary authority as the basis for the rules for conducting business and the rights of the members.

VI. MEETINGS

a) All meetings of the Air Group shall be held at a time and place to be determined by the Board of Directors. It is the responsibility of the Commander and the Adjutant to assure that notice of such a time and place is fully and adequately made to the membership.
b) A quorum will consist of one half of the Active Membership.
c) The Annual Meeting of the Air Group will be held as designated by the Board of Directors each year to conduct business as may be brought before the meeting.
d) Regular meetings will be held each month. During holiday or other unusual periods, the Commander may alter this schedule with adequate notice to the membership.
e) Special meetings may be called by the Board of Directors, the Sheriff of Yavapai County or an authorized designee of the Sheriff.

VII. DUES AND ASSESSMENTS

a) Members of the Air Group will be assessed annual dues payable on the first day of January of each year. New members who join at any time during the year, shall be assessed a joining fee equal to the annual dues, which will include the dues for the first year of membership.
b) Special Assessments may be proposed by the Board of Directors when the need arises. Passage of a motion to levy a special assessment of any amount shall require a 2/3 majority vote of the quorum. If a Special Assessment is approved, it shall be due and payable at the next regular meeting following approval.
c) A member who has become delinquent on dues or assessments beyond a thirty day period may be terminated from membership in the Air Group.

VIII. AMENDMENTS

a) These bylaws may only be amended by a 2/3 majority vote of a quorum present at a regular meeting of the Air Group for which a 15-day advance notice has been given.
